

Cressbrook & Litton Flyfishers Club

River Wye Adult Caddis Fly Occurrence Record 2008

Species recorded more than once	Month Recorded												Common Angler's Name
	January	February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December
Agepetus Fuscipes														Tiny Grey sedge
Athripsodes Albitrons														Brown Silverhorn
Drusus Annulatus
Ecclisopteryx Dalecarlica
Glossosoma Boltoni
Goera Pilosa														Medium Sedge
Hydropsyche Instabilis														Grey Flag
Lype Phaeopa
Melampophylax Mucoreus
Mystacides Azurea														Black Silverhorn
Polycentropus Flavomaculatus														Yellow Spotted Sedge
Potamophylax Cingulatus														Large Cinnamon Sedge
Potamophylax Latipennis														Large Cinnamon Sedge
Rhyacophila Dorsalis														Sand Fly
Sericostoma Personatum														Welshman's Button
Silo Pallipes														Black Sedge
Tinodes Waeneri														Small Red Sedge
Wormaldia Subnigra
Species recorded only once
Beraea Maurus
Cheumatopsyche Lepida
Halesus Digitatus														Caperer
Halesus Radiatus														Caperer
Hydropsyche Siltalai														Grey Flag
Lepidostoma Hirtum														Small Silver Sedge
Limnephilus Lunatus														Cinnamon Sedge
Lype Reducta
Wormaldia Occipitalis

We are most grateful to Stuart Crofts, who compiled this chart from insects collected by members of the Club. If you are interested in contributing to Stuart's Caddis Fly Survey please contact him on 0777 3713132.